

2014 AC COLLOQUIA

11 March 2014: Speakers – Daniel Thornton and Assoc Prof Shane Clifton

What we sing: A theomusicological exploration

Daniel Thornton

Grieving my broken body: an autoethnographic account of spinal cord injury as an experience of grief

Assoc Prof Shane Clifton

8 April 2014: Speakers – Prof Edwin Judge and Craig Hall

The schools of Alexandria

Prof Edwin Judge

Is there evidence of Alexandrian influences in the first century culture potentially informing and impacting the worldview of the New Testament?

Craig Hall

6 May 2014: Speakers – Dr Jim Twelves and Andrew Youd

What is exceptional about the heart of a Christian teacher?

Dr Jim Twelves

The ethics of God

Andrew Youd

3 June 2019: Speaker – Dr Jacqueline Mees

Making a contribution: What does it mean and how does one go about it?

Dr Jacqueline Mees

12 August 2014: Speakers – Narelle Coetzee and Dean O'Keefe

Wild God in the Wilderness

Narelle Coetzee

Becoming a Christian University

Dean O'Keefe

2 September 2014: Speakers – Christopher Cat and Samuel Stewart

Is the doctrine of 'the fall' biblical?
Christopher Cat

Early developments toward the study of current Australian Pentecostal conceptions of the kingdom of God
Samuel Stewart

14 October 2014: Speakers – Assoc Prof Jacqueline Grey and Micheline Facey

Reading of Isaiah 5 using Game Theory
Assoc Prof Jacqueline Grey

"Then You Shall Know that I Am the LORD": Spirit, Scripture and Community and the Tridactic Negotiation for Meaning in Ezekiel 14:1-11

Micheline Facey

4 November 2014: Speakers – David Perry and Andrew Stewart

Pentecostal Spirit Baptism: An Analysis of Meaning and Function
David Perry

Jesus tells us to be servants... then what is Peter talking about in Acts 6v2b

Andrew Stewart