Christian educational leaders are called to participate in God’s world of redemption and renewal of all things through Christ. The Graduate Certificate of education (Leadership) course involves engaging, Critiquing, and re-forming scholarly educational discourse and practice in light of biblical perspectives. Students will be equipped to re-imagine, develop, and lead flourishing and hope-filled learning communities, equipped to contribute to the task of transformative education.

The Graduate Certificate in Education (Leadership) is a four-subject (40 credit point) postgraduate course and is a nested award in the Master of Education (Leadership), allowing flexibility for students who may wish to start with a postgraduate course before committing to a Master of Education (Leadership). Students who need to exit the Master of Education (Leadership) earlier than intended due to unforeseen personal or professional reasons may qualify for a course enrolment variation into the Graduate Certificate of Education (Leadership).

The Graduate Certificate of Education (Leadership) is aimed at classroom practitioners, section or school leaders, or those wishing to develop their leadership abilities. Christian educators who desire to deepen their understanding of educational practice and leadership through study in this course will develop their craft of Christian education through deeply engaging with reflective practice, critical thinking, and communication of ideas. This course provides a broad understanding of educational leadership principles as well as critical and creative thinking skills which are valuable to any professional context. It also provides the opportunity for students to explore the implication of their faith in their professional context.

National Institute for Christian Education

Through a Higher Education Third Party Arrangement (HETPA), the National Institute for Christian Education (NICE) delivers this course of study on AC's behalf. NICE is a postgraduate training institute that has been developing Christian educators since 1979. For more information about NICE, including the suite of courses they deliver, their teaching faculty, requirements for admission into this course of study, and information about fees and student services, please visit NICE's website (<https://nice.edu.au/>).

AC & NICE GRADUATE ATTRIBUTES

Christian Worldview

AC: A knowledge of the Christian story, derived from the Scriptures and tradition of the church. An awareness of the implications of this story for self-identity in the context of local and global communities. This includes a commitment to engage with alternate worldviews, showing appreciation of the values and perspectives of others.

NICE: Articulate a clear understanding of God's story, a biblical worldview, and its impact on philosophical and historical trends in education. Plan and implement educational programs in the social and cultural context of the contemporary world that are critically shaped by a biblically informed experience of that world.

Leadership

AC: The ability to provide effective Christian leadership to individuals, groups and organisations, demonstrated in the capacity to influence and enable others to accomplish worthwhile objectives, which contribute to the human good and the kingdom of God. This includes seeking to emulate the example of Jesus Christ in serving and empowering others.

NICE: Demonstrate the advanced level of knowledge and high order of skills that are required for effective Christian educational leadership and training in such areas as teaching, curriculum, administration and research in order to fulfil the vision and mission of particular school communities.

Integrity and Justice

AC: The ability to apply a Christian worldview in the diverse situations and responsibilities of life, and to exercise faith, hope, love and generosity as prevailing attitudes. This includes the active promotion of the gospel, social justice, equality, mutual respect and an ecological ethos.

NICE: Recognise the diversity of worldviews and life values that characterise today's pluralist societies, encourage respect, based on informed understanding, of those who hold views that differ from those of the school community of the student.

COURSE HANDBOOK

Communications

AC: The ability to communicate effectively to a range of audiences, in appropriate contexts using high levels of verbal, written and technological skills. This includes visual and media literacy, numeracy, rhetoric and persuasion.

NICE: Critically evaluate and effectively communicate educational theories and practices in order to most effectively achieve desired learning outcomes with special attention to embedded worldview and life values.

Personal and Social Skills

AC: Demonstrate relational skills that incorporate the flexibility for both independent and collaborative situations. This includes personal and group organizational skills, conflict management and resolution, as well as the ability to value and respect the opinions of others.

NICE: Develop a plan for continual personal development that includes spiritual, professional and interpersonal skills for effective classroom teaching and collegial academic engagement.

Critical and Creative Thinking

AC: A capacity for critical and reflective thinking that is explored not only individually but within a community context. This includes a capacity to be creative and to research, analyse and resolve problems in innovative and prophetic ways.

NICE: Demonstrate creativity and flexibility supported by biblically informed, rigorous reasoning in identifying and dealing with emerging problems in the educational context.

Professional Knowledge

AC: Maintenance and use of knowledge about a discipline or field, involving theoretical, conceptual and methodological elements. This includes striving continually and independently to secure further knowledge and where appropriate, defined professional skills.

NICE: Develop and implement classroom research projects that will provide a sound basis for the development of effective educational practice based upon the philosophical assumptions of the school context and needs of students.

About NICE Course Delivery

The Master of Education (Leadership) is delivered online using the Learning Management System (LMS), Moodle. Online study is supported by lecturer meetings (via zoom/teams). Although these synchronous sessions are not compulsory and will be recorded for those unable to attend live, participation is highly recommended.

NICE@School delivery arrangement may be approved for the first two core subjects EDU400a and EDU501a, allowing for additional support through intensives.

The National Institute for Christian Education (NICE) delivers this course of study on AC's behalf through a Higher Education Third Party Arrangement (HETPA). The National Institute for Christian Education (NICE) offers study over three semesters per year.

Semester 1: March to June

Semester 2: July to November

Summer Intake: November to February

COURSE HANDBOOK

Students studying outside Australia are welcome and catered for in the course delivery.

Graduate Pathways

Students who have successfully completed the Graduate Certificate in Education may progress into the Master of Education (Leadership). Graduates are advised to contact the Future Students Team for information on eligibility requirements for further study.

Career Opportunities

This course aims to produce graduates who are competent and reflective professional education leaders who are equipped to engage in life-long learning in their educational profession. The Graduate Certificate in Education (Leadership) has been developed primarily for qualified school principals and those in school leadership positions within the Christian Education National schools in Australia, however, the course may be undertaken by education leaders in other school systems in Australia, as well as by students studying online overseas.

Work-Integrated Learning

Work-Integrated Learning may be undertaken through various Professional Practice and Professional Experience subjects at AC. These subjects seek to create a direct linkage between the learning, skills and values engaged in lectures, and the reflection which occurs when these are applied in real-life settings. These work-based training subjects comprise of instruction, academic assessment and a placement in a workplace for each subject. To qualify for the award of the Graduate Certificate in Education (Leadership), a candidate is not required to complete any Professional Practice subjects.

For further information related to Work-Integrated Learning please see the Professional Practice Handbook on Moodle or contact our Student Support team.

ADMISSION CRITERIA

Academic Entry Requirements

Applicants with Recent Secondary Education

This course of study requires the completion of a higher education qualification by an authorised institution. Applicants with recent high school education only are not eligible for direct entry into this course.

Applicants with Vocational Education and Training Study

This course of study requires the completion of a higher education qualification by an authorised institution. Applicants with a Vocational Education and Training (VET) qualification only are not eligible for direct entry into this course.

COURSE HANDBOOK

Applicants with Higher Education Study

Applicants whose highest level of study enrolment since leaving secondary education is a higher education qualification must demonstrate the completion of at least an AQF Level 7 Bachelors degree in Education, or equivalent, or completion of a Level 8 or above equivalent postgraduate qualification by an authorised institution. Students who have completed an AQF Level 7 Bachelors degree or overseas equivalent in a field other than Education must demonstrate two years professional experience relevant to the field.

Applicants with Work and Life Experience

This course of study requires the completion of a higher education qualification by an authorised institution. Applicants who have not completed formal higher education study are not eligible for direct entry into this course.

English Language Proficiency

Overseas students are required to demonstrate their English proficiency skills. Such students admitted into our programs must attain an overall IELTS (or equivalent) score of 7.0 (with no score below 7.0 in any of the four skills areas). IELTS (or equivalent) is not required for applicants who have undertaken five years of required higher education study (or equivalent) in English from an approved country or who have completed a Certificate IV or higher qualification awarded in English under the Australian Qualification Framework by an authorised institution or registered training organisation.

Applicants are encouraged to contact the International Student Office if they are unsure of the equivalence of their English language proficiency test scores.

Special Admissions Pathways

AC's Admissions Policy details the special admission pathways for our courses of study. The Special Admission Pathways are evaluated on a case-by-case basis by the Program Director. A student's admission requirements may be reconsidered on educational disadvantage grounds, including but not limited to:

- Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent, where the normal HSC entry path has not been followed;
- socioeconomic reasons (such as low-family income or poor living conditions);
- learning or language difficulties;
- disrupted schooling;
- physical disability;
- serious family illness or excessive family responsibility;
- geographical isolation of home and/or school;
- completion of a prescribed program of non-award study (four subjects or 40 credit points) with an overall GPA of 1.8 or better.

For a full list of special admissions pathways, please see AC's Admissions Policy.

COURSE HANDBOOK

DIVERSITY AND EQUITY

AC is committed to providing a learning environment that is free from discrimination on the basis of income, age, disability, social and ethnic background, location or gender. AC endeavours to increase opportunities for people of all backgrounds to participate in training programs, and implement programs that take into account the specific needs of participants. AC encourages students to inform AC of any disability, medical condition or learning need that may impact on your studies to arrange a study plan that best suits your needs.

HOW TO APPLY

Once you have chosen your course of study, you will need to apply direct to NICE. Applications typically close 3 weeks before semester commences. All NICE application forms are completed online.

Further information on How to Apply and access to the Application Forms is available on the NICE website.

Credit transfers and recognised prior learning (RPL)

You may be entitled to credit for prior learning, whether formal or informal. Formal learning can include previous study in higher education, vocational education, or adult and community education. Informal learning can include on the job learning or various kinds of work and life experience. Credit can reduce the amount of study needed to complete a degree.

For further information about credit and recognition of prior learning please see AC's Credit Transfer and Recognition of Prior Learning Policy or contact our Student Support team.

HOW TO ENROL

Once you have returned a signed copy of your Letter of Offer to accept your place at NICE, you will be invited to enrol in your specific subjects in the next academic period. Students are advised to consult their timetable (please visit the NICE website), and contact the Student Support Team for tailored academic advice before completing the enrolment form.

Applications for credit transfers or recognised prior learning will be communicated to you once they have been processed.
