COURSE OVERVIEW

The Master of Theology (MTH) is designed to prepare graduates for ministry and leadership within church, academic and community settings. Graduates of the MTH will have an advanced knowledge of theological studies, including a working knowledge of recent developments and approaches in the area of their discipline specialisation. With an exciting vision to train professionally competent scholars, leaders and managers in a wide range of careers, the MTH provides a unique opportunity to engage in cutting edge research and critical exploration of contemporary issues. Developing specialised skills in fields such as Theology, Biblical Studies and Christian History, students will be trained to communicate complex ideas and propose solutions to a wide audience, as well as design and implement an advanced research thesis. Students also have a selection of electives, which range from Ancient Languages to Marketing, to add to their learning experience. With internationally acclaimed lecturers who bring not only academic expertise but practical experience into the classroom, the MTH will provide an educational experience of holistic formation which prepares students to change the world.
